

The University
Of Sheffield.

Department
Of Economics

Workshop: Household Finance

Thursday 1 June 2017

Interdisciplinary Centre of the Social Sciences (ICOSS), 219 Portobello, the University of Sheffield, Sheffield, S1 4DP

09.00-09.20	Coffee and registration
09.20-09.30	Welcome by the event organisers
Morning Session
09.30-10.45	Keynote: João Cocco (Professor of Finance) London Business School, UK 'Evidence on feedback loops between household finances, expectations and emotions'
10.45-11.30	Georgios A. Panos (Professor of Finance) University of Glasgow, UK 'Financial literacy and attitudes to devolution: The cases of the Brexit and the Scottish referendum'
11.30-12.15	Tabea Bucher-Koenen (Senior Researcher) Munich Center for the Economics of Aging, Germany 'Women, confidence, and financial literacy'
12.15-13.00	Lunch
Afternoon Session 1
13.00-14.15	Keynote: Michael Haliassos (Professor and Chair of Macroeconomics and Finance), Goethe University, Germany 'Household Finance: Crossing Borders'
14.15-15.00	Alessandra Guariglia (Professor of Financial Economics), University of Birmingham, UK 'Disentangling the link between financial health and obesity among the over 50s in England'
15.00-15.15	Coffee
Afternoon Session 2
15.15-16.00	Alessandro Buccioli (Associate Professor of Econometrics), University of Verona, Italy 'Financial risk tolerance of long-term investors with parameter uncertainty'
16.00 - 16.45	Annika Weber (Research Assistant), Goethe University, Germany 'Client involvement in expert advice - antibiotics in finance?'

This workshop is supported by the Royal Economic Society

Inst
EAD. | Institute for Economic Analysis of Decision-making.

